

THE FEDERAL CAPITAL.

SENATOR BROWN'S SPEECH ON THE ISSUE OF SILVER.

An Earnest Attack Upon the Anti-Silver Views of the Secretary of the Treasury, The Sherman Refunding Bill Under Review—Proceedings of the House, Etc.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—[Special.]—Senator Brown spoke nearly two hours to-day on the resolution introduced by him last week, declaring the sense of the senate against the withdrawal of silver certificates and further restriction of silver coinage. He contended that the secretary of the treasury in recommending the restriction of silver, on the ground that it would drive gold from us, not only advocated the theory which would bring great hardships on laboring classes, but based that theory on fallacious reasoning; that silver is to-day worth more in the latin union and other European states than here, and the fact is that silver is leaving us and gold coming in. His speech was an able argument against the policy advocated by the president and secretary. It will be a knotty problem for the advocates of contraction, and is considered one of the most powerful appeals for the silver certificate and a liberal coinage of silver yet made. The senator took a plain, business-like view of the question, and the speech will be read with interest in Georgia and the country generally. The enemies of silver will be able to do very little at this session.

In his speech, Senator Brown reviewed our legislation on the silver question, showing its unfriendly character, and contending that while silver had not been able to withstand it, gold would not have stood it any better if the assaults had been made on that metal. As to what shall be the ratio of equivalents he thought the French standard was about the true one. That ratio was one upon which France would be willing to stand with the United States. Controversy over the assumption upon which he said the secretary of the treasury had based his recommendations for stopping silver coinage, that if this was not done gold would flow from the United States and silver would take its place, and we would be reduced in the commercial world to the level of the minor and less civilized nations. Mr. Brown argued that the ratio of gold and silver was not fixed by the two metals higher than it had been fixed by other commercial powers, (ours being sixteen to one, while most of the commercial nations adopt fifteen and a half to one, and Germany now fourteen to one) and practically the very reverse of a flow of gold from and of silver to the United States would be the result of this. He quoted from the financial reports of gold and silver mono-metalism and bi-metalism alike, who discarded the theory of the secretary, and went on to demonstrate that the facts also were in the very teeth of the producing power. We were assailing our own interest in seeking to depreciate the value of this product, and in joining with Germany and Great Britain in giving to gold the name of the standard of value and importance of money. In favoring green-back redemption in part in coin, Mr. Brown said he was opposed to the idea of one currency for the bondholder and another for the people, and that the full measure of his rights and equities entitled the bondholder, under his contract, to payment in the silver dollars of the standard of 1870, which was 42½ grains and in the case of the withdrawal of the silver certificates, he argued that these furnished a better currency than would the bank bills, which, as he understood, the proposition of the president and secretary of the treasury it was proposed to substitute for certificates. The banks would be under no compulsion to issue new bills to take the place of the certificates, and if they were so disposed could convert the present volume of the currency fifty millions or more. A worse currency would be substituted for a better, as the certificates were always redeemable promptly in legal tender dollars, while the bank bills, in case of bank failures, are not promptly, though they are ultimately redeemable. By retaining the silver certificates, the government avoids some enormous machinery and avoids the profit on circulation which, in the other case, are given to the bank.

In Senate.—A communication was received from the secretary of the treasury in response to a senate resolution as to the present rates of duties imposed by France, Germany and Mexico upon American manufactures. Numerous petitions for a commission to investigate the liquor traffic were presented.

Mr. Davis, of Illinois, from the committee on judiciary, reported back favorably the bill to permit Mr. Ward Hunt, an associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, to retire. He gave notice that he would ask its consideration to-morrow.

Mr. Cameron, of Pennsylvania, from the committee on naval affairs, reported a resolution for the examination of the naval code of the new system of naval defense invented by Captain J. Ericsson and report thereon. Adopted.

A number of bills, granting relief in individual cases were presented.

Mr. Blair offered a resolution instructing the committee on public lands to inquire into the administration of the land laws. Adopted.

The remainder of the morning hour was occupied by Mr. Brown in remarks upon the currency question, his text being his resolution declaring the inexpediency of contracting the currency by the withdrawal of silver certificates or the discontinuance of silver coinage.

At 2:25 Mr. Brown concluded and his resolution went over until action.

The senate then resumed the consideration of the Sherman funding bill.

Mr. Morgan opposed the bill. He said he was entirely satisfied of the ability of the government to pay $300,000,000 of the Windom continued bonds in eleven years without drawing one cent from the surplus revenues, and presented figures in illustration. He also gave figures showing the respective states of the appropriation necessary to extinguish the whole debt in five, twenty and thirty equal installments. He was in favor of using this surplus to extend the period of the sinking of $100,000,000 per annum. Commenting on the avowal which he said had been made by some senators in the debate of postponing the payment of a part of the public debt, and thus continuing indefinitely in order to perpeuate the national banking system, he spoke of the incubus of the bank power, which, having been created at a moment of folly, was now making its weight upon the government. He referred to the exclusiveness of the system of limiting the basis of banking to bonds of the government, to the value of the franchise enjoyed by the banks by reason of their circulation being founded upon the credit and strength of the government, and to their apparent intention to continue business upon from $500,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 of the bonds. He then suggested as a means of avoiding a continuance of this system indefinitely that the government should cease paying interest on securities held by it for the redemption of circulation and further substitution in their stead, from time to time, of state bonds of undoubted security as collateral, these being taken at fifty cents on the dollar, or at any percentage low enough to make the security absolutely safe. Upon the conclusion of Mr. Morgan's remarks the funding bill was informally laid aside until to-morrow.

The bills introduced by Mr. George to encourage agriculture and manufactures and to repeal all duties and imports now on machinery for the manufacture of cotton or woolen goods, or goods composed of hemp or jute; also, on all looms of mechanics which are used solely in such manual labor; also on all agricultural implements and on all iron cotton ties.

By Mr. Ferry—Relative to the compensation of letter carriers.

A message from the president was received, transmitting for the consideration of congress a number of communications from the secretary of the interior.

The senate at 3:30 went into executive session, after which adjournment was had.

THE HOUSE.

The house proceeded as the regular business of the morning hour to call of committees for reports.

Mr. Thompson, of Georgia, from the coinage committee, made a report on the subject of metric coinage. Recommended and ordered printed.

Mr. Willis, of Kentucky, offered a resolution calling on the president for information as to the execution of section 1733 of the revised statutes for the promotion of the efficiency of the civil service and whether the sum of $15,000 appropriated for that purpose is sufficient for the purpose. Referred.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, the house resumed the consideration of the report of the committee on the proposed increase of membership of certain committees.

The pending question was on Mr. Orth's substitute for the appointment of a board to select the members of the committee on the proposed increase of membership of certain committees.

Mr. King, of Louisiana, offered an amendment relating to the Mississippi river, providing that it shall have the same privileges in reporting appropriations for the improvement of the river as are accorded to the committee on the Mississippi river.

Mr. Thompson, of Illinois, advocated the amendment and said there was no reason why the committee on commerce should have charge of the question, unless the object was to make appropriations for Mississippi to carry through the house the river and harbor appropriation bill. He asserted that the commerce of the Mississippi river was twenty-five times greater than the whole foreign commerce of the United States, and by the projected improvements, transportation would be cheapened thirty-three per cent.

Mr. Thompson, of Kentucky, opposed the amendment.

Mr. Springer, of Illinois, advocated the amendment and appealed to the eastern members to give to the interests of the great Mississippi valley the special committee provided for in the amendment.

Mr. Turner, of Kentucky, also advocated the amendment, and suggested that the committee should also have jurisdiction of the silver question and other matters of the Mississippi.

After some further discussion, in which Means, Kenna, Turner, Daves, Hoar and Willis participated, the subject went over to the house without action, and at 4:20 the house adjourned.

GEORGE'S PROPOSITION.

Senator George introduced in the senate to-day a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution to provide for an election by the people of judges and all other civil officials of the United States exercising executive or ministerial powers within the several states, excepting officers, for the collection, disbursement, or safe keeping of United States revenues, and officers of the United States mint, and officers of the departments and both houses of congress.

THE APPROPRIATIONS.

The sub-committee of the house committee on appropriations reported the fortifications bill to a full committee this morning. It appropriates $255,000, including $175,000 for the protection and repair of fortifications and other works of defense; $25,000 for sea coast defenses, including heavy guns; and $100,000 for torpedoes, etc.

TO BE REFUND.

At the meeting of the house committee on claims to-day Representative Turner made a favorable report on the bill to refund to the state of Georgia certain moneys expended by that state during the revolutionary war. The report was adopted, and Mr. Turner was directed to report the measure to the house with a favorable recommendation.

THE LOST JEANNETTE.

Action of the Russian Government for the Relief of the Crew.

WASHINGTON, D.C., January 18.—Secretary Frelinghuysen has received dispatches from Mr. Hoffman, United States charge, at St. Petersburg, reporting the action of the Russian authorities in the aid of the survivors of the Jeannette. On receipt of the president's orders to make provision for the payment of the expenses of maintaining the rescued men and of returning them to the United States, Mr. Hoffman had a conference with General Ignatieff, who showed very deep interest in the fate of the crew. He had already telegraphed to the Russian authorities to furnish the rescued men with money, if needed, and with supplies of every kind and to place the imperial telegraphs at their disposal. Active measures were being taken for searching for the crew of the missing boat.

A Reign of Terror.

New York, January 18.—A special to the Evening Post, from Chihuahua, says: Mexican reports say there is a reign of terror in Jalisco. In recent days a number of persons have been killed and wounded by the troops. In the same state bandits attacked a train, killed one man and stole some freight. During the election trouble at Guadalupe, Lieutenant Colonel Manuel Ayak was killed by Don Euzibia Barragan.

THE INSPIRATION.

THAT LED TO THE ASSASSINATION OF MR. GARFIELD.

Declared by Mr. Scoville to Have Come From the Subconscious Mind of the Assassin, Who Made Suggestions Which Found Practical Lodgment in the Craned Brain of Guiteau.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—Mr. Scoville resumed his argument to-day, taking up and discussing the statistics of insane criminals which have been introduced in evidence by the prosecution, and claimed that this evidence was of the greatest benefit to the defense. Discussing the horrors of crime as often shown in the acts of insane criminals, Mr. Scoville said: "There is nothing in this act to compare with some of these insane acts of crime. And gentlemen of the jury, in my opinion if there were no reasons, and powerful ones, back of this prosecution, this prisoner never would have been brought to trial; but I tell you, gentlemen of the jury, that back of this prosecution is an influence which I have felt, and which you may feel, gentlemen, before this trial is ended. There are politicians who seek to hide their own shame behind the disgrace of this poor prisoner, and make him the scapegoat for their crime. I did not intend, gentlemen of the jury, to take up this feature of the case, but when I find out that the power and influence of this government used against me in denying me the small position that I have asked—a fair and impartial trial—and the small facilities needed for proper defense, I do not propose to keep quiet. I say that such men as Grant, and Conkling, and Arthur are morally responsible for this crime. Conkling shall not escape—shall not shrink the responsibility of the state of things that led to this act—he shall not escape the condemnation of the American people if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful scramble for office, that led to a conflict with the chosen ruler of this great nation, and led this poor insane man to compass what they would have hailed with satisfaction, as would, probably, hundreds of other sane men, the removal of Garfield, who stood in the way of their unrighteous and disgraceful struggle for power, I will not shrink from my responsibility. I will not shrink from my responsibility, gentlemen of the jury, if I can help it. For his share in the disgraceful

THE CONSTITUTION,

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY.
ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION is published every day except Monday, and is delivered by carriers in the city, or mailed postage free at $1 per month, $2.50 for three months, or $10 a year.

THE CONSTITUTION is for sale on all trains leading out of Atlanta, and at news stands in the principal southern cities.

ADVERTISING rates depend on location in the paper and will be furnished on application.

CORRESPONDENCE containing important news is solicited from all parts of the country.

UNDER no circumstances will the editors undertake to preserve or return manuscripts not available or publication.

ADDRESS all letters and telegrams, and make all drafts, checks payable to

THE CONSTITUTION
ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA, GA., JANUARY 19, 1882.

The Texan pistol is always loaded.

A pension of $5,000 per annum is proposed for Mrs. Garfield.

There have been 4,000 bills introduced in the present session of congress.

Bolivia and Chili are at peace, but Bolivia must not be friendly with Peru.

Lord Lurgan is dead, aged 51. He owed his fame to the possession of a courting hand.

The president sent to the senate yesterday the name of Daniel T. Boynton to be pension agent at Knoxville, Tenn.

The readjusters are disarranging themselves over the plunder. That is the rock against which all patriotic bodies split.

The charges against ex-Secretary Sherman, made by a treasury clerk, have not been dropped before the committee, and will be dropped.

The senate committee on pensions favors the increase of Mrs. Lincoln's pension, with the exception of Mr. Groom, who favors a direct gift of $100,000.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Richmond and Danville railroad, in Richmond, yesterday, Colonel A. S. Buford was re-elected to the presidency.

The government of Russia is extending to the survivors of the Jeannette every assistance possible, and has given instructions for a thorough search for the remainder of the crew.

Lord Zetland, a liberal peer, refuses to follow Mr. Gladstone. The lord is a little behind the age, but circumstances over which he has no control will continue to push his kind up.

Representative Turner has been instructed by the committee on claims to report favorably a bill to refund to the state of Georgia certain moneys expended in the revolutionary war.

Speedy reports are promised from the governor of Arkansas, and the committee of investigation, respecting the issues between them. The governor, if nothing worse, is certainly a bad bookkeeper.

The Iowa legislature on yesterday elected Mr. Wilson for the long term, and Mr. McDill for the short term, in the United States senate. Mr. Kirkwood will have to go back to driving his oxen.

Attorney-General Brewster has decided to revive the practice of his earlier predecessors in office, Wirt, Pinkney and Black, and hereafter will appear in the supreme court in all cases affecting the government. This is also the English practice.

The first practical speech of the session was delivered in the senate yesterday, by Senator Brown, in opposition to the recommendation of the secretary of the treasury for the withdrawal of silver certificates and the restriction of further silver coinage.

Russia has a habit of sending scurvy diplomats to this country, whose social relations are not such as to commend them to decent society. The retiring minister, Bartholomew, however, is about the meanest importation ever thrust upon the American foreign office.

Senator George, of Mississippi, believes that the most direct way of securing civil service reform is by an appeal to the people. To carry out this belief he has introduced into the senate a proposed amendment to the constitution, making the offices of United States judges, attorneys, marshals and postmasters elective.

The annual product of precious metals in states and territories west of the Missouri river, including British Columbia and receipts at San Francisco from the west coast of Mexico reported to Wells & Fargo, is: Gold, $31,899,696; silver, $44,077,820. California shows an increase in silver and a decline in gold. Nevada shows a falling off; Utah, Colorado and Arizona an increase.

The progress of the small-pox is still unchecked. During the week ending January 7 there were two deaths in San Francisco, Cal. During the week ending January 14 there were six deaths in Richmond, Va. One new case was reported in Milwaukee, and one death in Holyoke, Mass.; ninety-one new cases and twenty-four deaths in Pittsburgh, Pa., and fifteen new cases and five deaths at St. Louis, Mo.

In his remarks to the jury yesterday, Mr. Scoville skillfully unmasked the real criminals in the assassination of the late president. His remarks were bold and to the point. His picture of Conkling precipitating a deadly conflict over a small office, and of Grant's hot haste in returning from Mexico to take part in the assault upon the president, suggests that it is not always the tool who is the greatest criminal, but the men who inspired the act.

SENATOR HILL AND DR. FELTON.
Mr. Hill's letter, which since Saturday has been making its way to Atlanta by means of our system of fast mails, arrived yesterday morning, and will be found elsewhere in this issue of THE CONSTITUTION. While it is not the most important, in some respects it is the most interesting letter that Mr. Hill has ever had occasion to write. Dwelling upon the fact that the report of his interview with Mr. Grady gave Dr. Felton no sort of excuse for his savage onslaught, Mr. Hill proceeds to review his personal relations with the doctor which appear to have been of the most intimate character. The impartial reader will doubtless agree with Mr. Hill that if there was anything in the report of the interview calculated to offend Dr. Felton, he owed it to his intimacy with Mr. Hill to seek a personal explanation before making an attack so disproportionate in its bitterness to the alleged offense. The tone of Mr. Hill's letter is manly, and its temper admirable throughout. These qualities add weight and impressiveness to his statements.

It is true—curiously true indeed—that every charge brought against Mr. Hill by Dr. Felton, was as true when the two were intimate friends as it is now. All this Mr. Hill brings out with eloquent and elaborate distinctness. On the other hand—and what is of the most importance—Mr. Hill pays high tribute to Dr. Felton's constancy and conscientiousness as a democrat. He was an independent, but still a democrat, and he sought by every means in his power to advance the interests of the democratic cause and the cause itself. He was willing even to accept the democratic nomination; he was anxious to align himself with the party as a regular, and in this direction he sought the friendly offices of Mr. Hill. These facts are important, and we are glad that Mr. Hill has called renewed attention to them. They show that whatever may have been the attitude and intentions of other independents, Dr. Felton was always an earnest democrat. Why should he not continue to be a democrat? So far as we know nothing has occurred calculated to drive him out of the party, or further away from his own chosen position of independence. We know of no emergency that compels him to desert this position and enter into a coalition with republican spoilsmen. The proposed coalition, let us hope, has got no further than the incipient stage defined by the Markham house caucus. If Dr. Felton will listen to the advice of his friends it will go no further. He has no excuse for destroying his usefulness as a democrat—as an independent democrat, if you please—by lending his influence and his name to such a combination as that which showed the fingers of its left hand at the Markham house.

The controversy between Mr. Hill and Dr. Felton is to be regretted; it is to be regretted, indeed, that any cause for such a controversy exists. It is largely personal, but the relations which these gentlemen bear and have borne to the public interest, and for that reason the columns of THE CONSTITUTION have been opened to give each a fair and impartial hearing.

GEORGIA IN CONGRESS.

Mr. Black introduced, after the holiday recess, a bill to authorize the sale of Ogletowne barracks in Savannah, and Mr. Buchanan a bill for the relief of Thomas M. Jones. Mr. Buchanan also introduced a bill to appropriate $100,000 for the improvement of the Chattahoochee river. The speaker directed that the bill be sent to the committee on commerce through the petition-box; and in the course of the discussion that followed this decision, the fact was made public that bills relating to the establishment of post-roads and to the improvement of rivers and harbors are not real bills at all. Such bills are never printed or numbered, and never come before the house. Clause 3 of rule 21 makes such bills mere papers of form that suffice to get a member's name into the Record and satisfy perhaps a constituent or so—nothing more. After they are presented they go to the petition-box and then to oblivion.

On the motion to appoint a select committee on woman suffrage Senator Hill discussed the appointment of select committees in general. They are generally appointed for the purpose of giving somebody a chairmanship that somebody may have a clerk. Mr. Hill proceeded to urge the giving to every senator who has a not a committee a clerk. He thought the country would approve such an expenditure. "Why," said he, "if I were to attend to all the business in the departments and otherwise that my constituents ask me to perform, I could not discharge half my duties in this chamber; and every senator, I dare say, has the same experience. It is to the public interest, therefore, in my judgment, that every senator should have a clerk. I am unable to employ a clerk from my own funds; many other senators are more fortunately situated; but still I must do that or move the appointment of a special committee for the purpose in an indirect way of getting a clerk. It is not right."

Through the petition-box Mr. Black presented bills for the improvement of Brunswick harbor, Savannah harbor, the Altamaha river, and the Romney marshes; Mr. Buchanan presented the petition of G. A. B. Dozier and others relative to interstate commerce; Mr. Cook, the petition of D. G. Hughes and others for a mail route, and a petition of citizens of Sumter, Schley and Marion counties for a mail route between Americus and Buena Vista; Mr. Spear, the petition of James V. Smith for a post route, and Mr. Stephens, some papers relating to the war claim of Bernard Rice, and the patent claim of William Wheeler Hubbard.

In the senate petitions from the Good Templars of Georgia and from the grand division of the Sons of Temperance of the state were referred to the committee on finance, without instructions. Senator Brown offered a resolution to authorize the employment of a clerk for each senator not a chairman of a committee, the clerk to receive $1,200 a year from the contingent fund of the senate. Governor Brown, in the course of a speech in support of his resolution, stated that it was a physical impossibility to attend to the duties of a senator without the aid of a clerk. He himself needed two clerks, and he had two now in his employ. "There are some senators," he said, "in this chamber who have the means to employ any number of clerks, and if matters remain as they now are, we shall soon reach a period when no one but a man of wealth can properly represent a state in the senate, because without clerical aid he cannot discharge the duties required of him properly; and because the salary paid is not sufficient to maintain him and his family in anything like respectability, and employ the necessary clerical aid." The subject went over at the instance of Senator Sherman. Thus far no one has advocated the proposition except the two Georgia senators.

The speaker with marked discourtesy refused to put Mr. Blount on the appropriations committee, but he is not able to keep the member from the sixth from discussing bills to appropriate money whenever they come up. He exposed in very plain terms the policy of the superintendent of census by which the government had become morally responsible in violation of law for a large payment of money. He was willing to vote for the appropriation under the circumstances, but he put on record a ringing protest against the manner in which the claim in question was created. Mr. Blount never talks in congress unless he has something to say—something that the people as well as the representatives should read.

Senator Brown offered the following resolution: Resolved, That it is inexpedient and unwise to contract the currency by the withdrawal from circulation of what are known as silver certificates, or to discontinue or further restrict the coinage of silver.

Resolved further, That gold and silver coin, based upon a proper ratio of equivalence between the two metals, and of paper, predicated upon and convertible into coin on demand, constitute the proper circulating medium of this country.

Senator Brown stated that he intended to discuss these resolutions at an early day. He also offered an amendment to the three-percent bond bill, authorizing the secretary of the treasury to receive subscriptions at one national bank in each city having a population of 10,000. The amendment was ordered to be printed. Our junior senator is evidently giving considerable time to financial subjects, and his speech on silver coinage will doubtless disclose the whole extent of his views on currency questions.

A CORRESPONDENT suggests that the coalition has no bottom. We had supposed it all bottom.

The fact that Judge Lochner has been heard from convinces us that the new movement lacks vigor and earnestness. The judge is our stony petrel.

MAHONEY is endeavoring to smooth over the difficulties of his office-seeking friends. This is the great trouble in such movements. Men who are willing to do office republicanism in order to secure office are apt to fall out among themselves when the scramble comes. Mahoney's beard will drop out before the season is over.

The society ladies of New York are still in ecstasies over Oscar Wilde. His precociousness is said to be as prominent as the brand on a Texas steer.

We should not be at all surprised to see it announced by some suspicious politician that the Macon art exhibition is a movement in favor of Blaine for president in 1884.

SENATOR McPHERSON is of the opinion that the republican candidate in 1884 will be David Davis. It seems to be generally conceded that Judge Davis is the man best qualified to be president, and, as such, deserves special recognition.

His St. Louis Post Dispatch, three years of age, has cut its eye teeth, moved into new quarters, secured a press, and will continue to publish things where a pile of dry bones is to be found. We send up our congratulations in order that they may arrive before the card-basket is removed from the front door.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Cincinnati Enquirer intimates that Dr. Miller is to be the coalition candidate for governor, while Dr. Felton, if he can succeed in carrying the seventh district, is to be transferred from the house to the senate, to succeed Senator Hill. This depending upon whether the dependents can carry the legislature. The "ifs" in this programme are as thick as bones in an Oceanic ship.

GENERAL TOWNES is reported as saying that if there is to be a coalition of independents and republicans, he wants to have a say-so about who is the best man to vote for. This appears to be in the nature of a plea for organization.

THERE is another rumor in the republican organs to the effect that Mr. Tilden has retired from politics. This is not official, however.

The independent attack upon Mr. Stephens for declaring in favor of democratic organization is not yet formulated. Indeed, an idea has got abroad somehow that Mr. Stephens is rather a tough customer to tackle.

In politics nearly everybody would rather straddle the coupling pole than to be the big dog under the wagon. And yet, the big dog under the wagon sees a good deal of the country and has considerable fun in passing.

BECAUSE the leading papers of the state are not engaged in abusing Dr. Felton and his friends as horse thieves, some of the independents are hinting that the democratic organization is about to join the republicans. It would seem from this that the good humored attitude of the leading papers is the deadliest blow that has yet been struck at independence.

THERE is one plank in the democratic platform upon which our independent and republican friends can afford to stand. We allude to vaccination.

It is reliably stated that the garters on Oscar Wilde's hind legs are tied with a true lover's knot. The more the public find out about this young man the more sweetly precious he becomes.

EDITOR MARTIN, of Rome, with praiseworthy vigilance, is pursuing Dr. Felton all through his recently formulated platform.

EX-GOVERNOR SMITH informs a correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer that the Blaine movement has an editor in Georgia. This is quite a tribute to Editor Grubb, of Darin, and Editor Moore, of Augusta.

of law-making. He spent a part of his New Year's holiday hunting in Virginia.

KROKOW, the editor of the Moscow Gazette, is said to be a more powerful man in Russia at the present day than even General Ignatieff, and to be the power behind the throne.

MR. LABOUCHE says of Mr. Gladstone that he is too kind and long-suffering and that his opponents are taking advantage of this kindness to insult him without having to fear the consequences.

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES said at a meeting of the Massachusetts historical society last week, that in the case of Richard Henry Dana, law robber literature of many brilliant gems.

MR. HENRY WARR, who recently died in Mexico, Oswego county, at the age of 76 years, was the fifth of nine brothers, all the rest of whom are still living, their average age being 73 years and 10 months.

GENERAL P. St. George Cooke, of the army, writes to the Army and Navy Journal lamenting that Fitz John Porter's statements "are likely to hold their place among the countless fictions of history."

SENATOR FAIRLIVES in Charles Sumner's old quarters at Washington. He is the richest man in congress, and perhaps the richest office-holder in the world. His leisure is devoted to the study of law.

The late Senator Wagner held a policy for $5,000 in an accident insurance company. Young Mr. Wagner, who was the son of the late senator, killed on the same train, had a policy for $5,000 in the same company.

J. W. LARRY, the Indian poet who visited Cambridge the other week, was much pitted by Mr. Longfellow. The aged writer received the young man warmly, and told him that his verses had the quality of lasting song.

A PORTRAIT of the Honorable James Russell Lowell has lately been painted by Mrs. Anna Lea Merritt. He is represented as wearing the red robe which he donned at Oxford when his honorary degree was conferred upon him.

JACOB BRADSHAW, a wealthy Washingtonian, died on Friday, after a long illness. He was interested largely in steamboats, and when his close friend, General Burnside, went on the Roanoke expedition, Mr. Bradshaw's officers and crew were of great service to the government.

SIMON FEW, known as a traveler, died at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, a few days ago, aged 72 years. He was the greater part of his life in wandering over strange lands, making acquaintance with the people of many countries, and there is scarcely a country on the habitable globe that Mr. Few did not visit.

DR. FRANCIS B. PHILLIPS, of Dorchester county, died on Friday, after a long illness. He was a member of the Massachusetts legislature in 1867 and 1868, and served again in the state senate in 1874 and 1876.

IN GENERAL.

Two new gambling establishments are being erected in Nice.

PARIS produces more than two hundred books every week.

STATISTICS show that women commit suicide most frequently on Sunday.

JUST after house-cleaning time is the most active period for the divorce court.

It is only ten years since that in France the science of geography came to be considered of much moment.

The London librarians who sell theater tickets receive fifteen per cent from the theater and ten per cent from the purchaser.

"We are an old man," is a grave yet amusing style in a leading editorial of the Meridian, Mississippi.

Cuba has a population in that period of revolutionary frenzy. Yet the speech must be regarded, on the whole, as an ingenious play.

A THEATRE PROPOSAL.

We doubt if there are any persons in America who take Oscar Wilde's present venture seriously.

THE CRUISE of the ship "Albatross" is a young gentleman of excellent penmanship, liberal education, and good parts, who is willing to accept of his salary in the form of a small pension.

A SCOTCH BAPTIST church is said to have been organized in the city of London, and a French one in the Argentine Republic.

THE MAORI Christians of New Zealand show great zeal and industry in their religious duties. New churches were finished by them during 1881, and four more are in progress.

Fifty leather straps, each a foot long, two inches wide, and very thin, have been purchased by the Port Huron, (Mich.) board of education for use in punishing pupils in the schools.

THE supreme court of Wisconsin has decided against the students of the state university who objected to the exaction of a fee of $9 per year for incidental expenses on the ground that it is a free institution.

It is said of the crown jewels of England that when they are used by the queen on occasions of state they are covered by a net of gold and under cover of two assistants. It has been suggested that they be protected en route by a guard of mounted police.

At the funeral of Chief Justice Pierpont, of Vermont, at Vergennes, the preacher caused some resentment among the mourners by expressing sorrow that the deceased had not been a Presbyterian to those views which are considered necessary to the Christian.

THE Maxwell ranch contains 1,700,000 acres of New Mexico land, and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad passes through it. The man whose name it bears is said to be a miser, and is purchasing various interests. He has put it into an English stock company, and a fence is being built around the Maxwell ranch to the raising of blooded stock on a large scale.

STILL another submarine tunnel is in contemplation. It is proposed that one shall be constructed under the straits of Messina, and the Italian minister of public works has already authorized the survey.

THE government of Mexico has decided to send a fleet of three gunboats to the Gulf of Mexico, and the government has reserved the right to carry out the project.

THE farmers of Maine are not likely to forget the year 1881, for every crop was successful and the universal harvest was almost without a parallel in the annals of husbandry.

It is reliably stated that the garters on Oscar Wilde's hind legs are tied with a true lover's knot. The more the public find out about this young man the more sweetly precious he becomes.

EDITOR MARTIN, of Rome, with praiseworthy vigilance, is pursuing Dr. Felton all through his recently formulated platform.

EX-GOVERNOR SMITH informs a correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer that the Blaine movement has an editor in Georgia. This is quite a tribute to Editor Grubb, of Darin, and Editor Moore, of Augusta.

to John Hay, that denounced by him as most disgraceful and odious thievery.

Food for the Lady-Like Young Men.

Brunson Albion has been casting about for a proper diet for the votaries of estheticism and has concluded that fruit and nut, vulgar, bloated meat, the proper eater. The young theologians of the Tribune have accordingly ordered a crate of cucumbers from New Orleans.

Press Pungencies.

Philadelphia Press.

Georgia is going to be the Pennsylvania of the south. Atlanta will be its Philadelphia.

The address from the prison cell settles it. Gaiter's "brides" have been found.

A Word for L. B. H.

Boston Herald.

It is getting to be fashionable to denounce President Hayes. With a salaried president dispensing favors and marking out the policy of the government, abuse of Hayes is safe, and perhaps, sometimes profitable. Let us not forget, however, that the administration of President Hayes was the purest and most steaming we have had for many years. It made steaming unfashionable.

Between Small-Pox and the Hatter.

Baltimore Gazette.

Governor Blackburn, of Kentucky, has informed the counsel for "Mal" Hicks, who is under sentence of death for murder, that the execution of the sentence will not be interfered with because of the fact of Hicks's illness with small-pox. Physicians of the jail say that the condemned man can not be safely approached by that time, but the expectation is that natural death will settle the difficulty instead of the hatter.

A Sinner at Paris Wedding.

Correspondence Boston Journal.

A young lady in Paris was recently fined fifty francs and sentenced to pay fifty francs damages for rushing at a church on her wedding day, and for tearing the crown of orange blossoms from the head of a young man who was with her. You have done me too much harm," shrieked the girl, after which she fainted away, and was picked up by the head and handed over to the police.

Senator Brown's Work.

Correspondence Augusta Chronicle.

Senator Brown will be heard upon this important question. I enclose a copy of his amendment. He will elaborate it carefully and make a most profound and careful study of it. He will not be content with the fact that the fact of Hicks's illness with small-pox. Physicians of the jail say that the condemned man can not be safely approached by that time, but the expectation is that natural death will settle the difficulty instead of the hatter.

A Word for the Dead.

Cincinnati Gazette.

If the Italian opera, translated into the American vernacular, be an additional degree of entertainment to the cultured people of America—a proposition upon which, in view of the prevailing presence of warring nations, we decline to take the alarm. If, we repeat, it be a blessing, then a word of tribute is due to Caroline Richings, who died at Richmond on the 14th. She preceded Pansy in giving opera in English with a good company. In fact, Pansy reaped the fruits which Caroline had sown. She was a woman of great talent and accomplished woman, and an honor to the stage.

The Assassin's Defense.

New York Tribune.

Mr. Reed's plea for Guiteau, like Mr. Scoville's opening speech, is characterized by unexpected lucidity and vigor. The case of the defense has been whittled down to the little end of nothing. Yet his lawyers have sufficient self-possession to face the jury and to evince their own sincerity by the manner in which they plead for an acquittal. Some of Mr. Reed's historical inferences are gratuitous, and his assumption that the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe of people in a agony of grief and sorrow were weeping up into the beautiful form of Pansy.

"See, my darling," he exclaimed, eagerly, placing the paper before her. "Look at this, my precious!"

Pansy opened her eyes and gazed languidly at the paper. "What is it, Theodore?" she asked, and then she looked at the hat-trick in the front hall, Reginald, stumbled for a moment in the upper left hand pocket of a coat over which he drew therefrom a piece of white paper. Returning to the parlor he knelt before the fountain in which a whole tribe on the west and seven on the east side of Washington street, between Clarke and Fulton streets. Washington street is one of the most fashionable thoroughfares of the city, and these lots are within easy access of the street cars. Elegant residences adjoin this property and several expensive mansions will be erected on this tract in close proximity, this spring. Offers before the day will be entertained on the basis of cash, terms, cash, baby, and in six and twelve months, with five per cent. interest.

R. H. KNAPP,
Real Estate Agent, 10 Fast Alabama street.
25 Jan 15th p m sun tes

LOCAL TIN-TYPES.

FROM OUR REPORTERS' POCKET CAMERAS.

Yesterday in the City—What was Done and Said by Home-Folks and Strangers—The Gossip of the Town as Taken on the Fly—Is set About the Courts and Departments.

The property-holders on Peachtree street are requested to meet today at 12 m. at the Young Men's Library for the purpose of considering the question of paving the streets under the new law.

FURNISHING TO MINORS.—To-day Judge Butt will have Wesley Scudder before him for a preliminary trial on a charge of furnishing distilled spirits to minors. The exact hour for the trial has not been fixed.

SET AT LIBERTY.—George Wilson and William Haskins were before Justice Pitchford yesterday for a preliminary trial for larceny. The evidence was not strong enough to convict them and they were set at liberty.

IN CHAMBERS.—In chambers yesterday Judge Hillyer heard an injunction case from Clayton county, McElroy et al. vs. Chambers et al. executors. The injunction was refused. Chambers court will be held again Friday.

DEAD.—Mr. R. P. Jackson, well known in Atlanta by his connection with the mail service, died yesterday in this city after a lingering illness. Mr. Jackson's death will be the source of great sorrow to many Atlantians.

A MODEST REQUEST.—Atlanta, January 12.—Editors Constitution: Will not our city fathers see to having a crossing made in front of Fair street school, and thus protect the health of the children who cross there daily? CITIZEN.

FOR RIOT.—Babe Moore, colored, was before Justice Pitchford yesterday on a charge of riot. Fred Mitchell and Babe Moore indulged in a big row Christmas, and it was this little event that formed the basis for the warrant. He was bound over.

A SEIZURE IN THE MOUNTAINS.—On the 16th Deputy Revenue Collector Shepard seized two distilleries in Polk county. One belonged to a man named Carter and the other was owned by a man named Finch. The officer also destroyed 500 gallons of beer.

FOR BURGLARY.—William M. Scott, charged with burglarizing the house of Dr. Curtis, Monday morning, was before Judge Butt yesterday for a preliminary hearing. He was required to give bond for his appearance at a court of final trial.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie C. Fuller are spending a few days at Jacksonville. They will make a run up the St. John's river and back, and sail from Fernandina on the 25th for Cuba via Nassau. They expect to spend a week at Nassau and two weeks in Havana and other points of interest in Cuba.

RELEASED.—Yesterday's issue of THE CONSTITUTION contained a brief notice of the arrest of one Allen, who was supposed to be Carter, the Florida assassin, for whom there is a reward of $1,000. After daylight the arrested person succeeded in convincing the officers at the station house that he was not Carter and his release was at once granted.

STEALING A TRUNK.—Yesterday morning a colored woman who gives her name as Mandy Johnson and who reached the city night before last, gave the check for a trunk to a negro driver with instructions to bring the trunk to a house on Baker street where she is stopping, but up to dark last night neither the trunk or the drayman had made an appearance.

A LUNATIC.—A Rabun county official passed through the city yesterday en route to Milledgeville. With him there was an aged white man whose name is John Jackson and who is a raving maniac. The old man imagines that he is engaged in a hand to hand fight with the devil, and the manner in which he twists and turns his body in his frantic efforts to evade his imaginary foe arouses the sympathy of all who see him.

STUCK IN THE MUD.—Yesterday as a Broad street cotton dealer was passing along East Mitchell street, he found two small children, a boy and a girl aged five and six years, standing in the middle of the street crying. Inquiry soon developed the fact that they were both fast in the mud, and it was not until the cotton dealer had waded almost knee deep in mud to their aid, that they were extricated from their disagreeable situation. In pulling the little girl from the mud one of her shoes was left buried.

SUSPICIOUS.—A few evenings ago a fine gold watch and chain and a handsome diamond pin were stolen from a colored man at his home on Peters street. Soon after the theft was committed the police were notified and a search for the missing property begun. Yesterday evening Officers Speer and Crim succeeded in securing a trace of the missing jewelry, which resulted in the arrest of a negro man named J. R. Mitchell. The darkey who lost the property was made to confront Mitchell and is certain that he is the person who robbed him.

A BOLD ROBBERY.—Yesterday evening a bold robbery occurred on Wheat street. A Mrs. Jackson had been up town and about dark started home. Just as she reached her gate some one grabbed her from behind, and before she could call for help snatched her pocketbook from her hand and made off. Mrs. Jackson, though terribly frightened by the robbery, says she would know the robber if he were brought before her. She describes him as being a short, heavy set black negro about twenty years of age. Mrs. Jackson also says that she remembers seeing the same negro near the Kimball house and again near the junction of Pryor and Wheat streets.

THEY SAY.—That the last two failures reported from Hampton make seven failed in that place.

That there is some mud on the back streets. That the trade in dry goods is being damaged on account of the fact that the mud keeps the ladies off the streets.

That the exposition was lucky to escape all the mud.

That a large force of laborers passed through the city yesterday en route to the Georgia Pacific railroad camps.

That Colonel Ben Lockett is erecting a fine convict stockade near the river.

LIBRARY DOTS.—Strangers are cordially invited to visit the rooms of the Young Men's library, where the leading newspapers and magazines can be seen at all times.

The board of directors will meet on Wednesday, the 18th instant, at 7:30 p.m., for the purpose of electing life members and to transact other important business. A full attendance is desired.

The city council would receive the thanks of 850 members of the library if they would place a gossing in front of the building, on Decatur street.

Librarian Billups desires us to say to the ladies that they are welcome to the use of the parlors at any time for the purpose of holding their society meetings.

Last Saturday was a bright day and the ladies turned out in force. One hundred and forty-seven books were issued. The total number of visitors was 400.

Join the library. The initiation fee is two dollars and the dues are four dollars a year.

Mr. SCARRATT AND THE BROAD WHEEL CASE.—In reporting the Broad wheel case, in our issue of the 14th of December, Mr. Small, who was at that time reporting for THE CONSTITUTION,

STILSON, JEWELER,

RELIABLE GOODS AND BOTTOM PRICES,

53 WHITEHALL STREET.

1450 rect30—44m top 74p 6x 5 1/2 in

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

Rheumatism Neuralgia

Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side. There is nothing more distressing than the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

PAIN KILLER has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, IT NEVER FAILS. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: I suffered some time since from pain in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER. It relieved me almost immediately. Our recent case of the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors' Home, London: I had been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave me up as incurable. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and it gave me immediate relief. I have regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is low, and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 a bottle. PERRY DAVIS & SON, Proprietors, Providence, R. I.

1015-1451c november december january whole next read mat

CHICAGO SCALE CO.

U. S. STANDARD SCALES!

CHICAGO SCALE CO.,

147, 149 and 151 Jefferson Street, Chicago,

MANUFACTURE

MORE THAN 300 DIFFERENT VARIETIES.

Buy the Best Quality at Lowest Prices.

2-TON WAGON SCALES (Platform 6x12).....$40

2-TON, 7x12.....$50 4-TON, 8x12.....$60

700-LB BEAM COTTON BEAM AND FRAME.....$45

Sold by reliable merchants everywhere. All scales warranted.

BECK, GREGG & CO., General Agents, oct6-d4w4m jan3-d18a2w2 Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia, Fulton county.—To the superior court of said county.

THE PETITION OF JOHN S. WISE, FRANK T. RYAN and Charles W. Johnson, and such other persons as they may associate with them and their successors and assigns, show that they wish to be incorporated under the name and style of the Fulton water works and steam engine company.

The object of said association is to furnish a supply of water in and for the city of Atlanta, and to such persons outside said city as may desire the same, and furnish transportation to passengers, and carry freight to and from the city of Atlanta, to the point where said water works are located, under laws of Georgia, with the privilege of constructing a water works system from some point to be selected by them, of purchasing and holding property for the purpose of carrying on said business of building and using a railroad track either for horse or steam power, and along the water main from the point where said water works may be located, to said city of Atlanta, together with all the rights and privileges appertaining or belonging to such corporations, or necessary or convenient for the purpose.

The capital stock of said company to be five hundred thousand dollars, with the power to increase the same when necessary for the purpose of carrying on said work. The place of doing business to be in the county of Fulton. The time twenty years, with power of renewal at expiration of said time.

A true extract from the minutes. dec29 law3w thur C. H. STRONG, C. S. C.

MUSICAL.

MRS. MARY MADDEN

WILL BE AT HER MUSIC ROOMS, 161 Whitehall street, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of every week, from 12 m. until 2 p.m., for the purpose of receiving pupils and making business engagements.

WANTED.—MANUFACTURING CONCERN wants a business man in Atlanta, and in every city (not exclusively taken.) A few hundred dollars necessary to pay for goods on delivery after orders have been secured for the same; $50 per month profit guaranteed. The most searching investigation solicited. A. S. ARNOLD & CO., 1293 Broadway, New York. jan13 6t

MEANS'S HIGH SCHOOL, 76 NORTH FORSYTH street, Atlanta, Ga. Exercises will be resumed January 24, 1882, and continue at 10 o'clock. No attempt is made to popularize the school by advancing pupils more rapidly than is consistent with thoroughness. But every student receives individual attention and is promoted according to his acquirements. Our course of instruction is so arranged that the mind may be developed systematically and successfully by mastering those studies first which lay the foundation for the more advanced and difficult till later. Mathematics, English composition and penmanship receive special attention. There is no charge for tuition. It is our purpose to let nothing that the teacher can do for the good of his pupils go undone. Pupils are prepared for junior class of any college in the state. There is also a special course for young men who wish to enter the ministry.

For Catalogue address T. E. MEANS

ATLANTA, C. L. FLOYD, PROF. CHARLES F. GAILMARD

Dec13 1m

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.

A GENERAL MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Fulton Water Works and Steam Engine Company will be held in Hartwell, Georgia, at noon on the twenty-first day of this month, for the purpose of electing new officers.

jan 12 1d W. R. STEPHENSON, Secretary.

Morton's Saponaceous Ointment, Prepared by W. T. Morton, West Point, Ga.

CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES ARISING FROM impurities of the blood, such as tetter, ring worm, scald-head, salt rheum, erysipelas, pimples or blotches on the skin, chapped hands, scyphitis and piles, burns, scalds, fever, sores and necrotic diseases, and all other eruptions of the skin. No article has ever been discovered that cures the skin so soft, so white, or cures burns or scalds so quickly, as the Saponaceous Ointment.

This is to certify that we were relieved of rheumatic pains by one application of Morton's Saponaceous Ointment and rheumatic compound combined. G. W. Hill, Britton Waters, at John M. Hill's, 16 Decatur street, Atlanta, Ga. Samuel P. Hill, of the firm of John M. Hill & Co., Atlanta, Ga.

I take pleasure in stating that I was relieved of severe pains in neck, by W. T. Morton's Saponaceous Ointment and rheumatic compound.

December 31st, 1881. E. E. LAMAR.

This certifies that I have known W. T. Morton and the use of his compounds for several years in his immediate community, and his remedies are there considered as a household necessity.

with the firm of M. J. Taylor & Co. Atlanta, Ga., January 24, 1882.

Morton's Rheumatic Compound, or Morton's Relief, will cure rheumatic and all other pains.

Morton's Relief is good for toothache, cramps, chills, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, turning off at the bowels, etc. It is very stimulating. Every bottle certifies itself. For sale by all druggists.

Circulars sent on application. For sale by Lamar, Rankin & Lamar, Walter Taylor, Dr. Bradford, and other druggists. jan6 d4m

292 nov6-law3m

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—ORDINARY'S office, January 7, 1882.—Notice is hereby given to all concerned that information has been filed in this office that James Holley, late of said county, departed this life intestate, and no person has applied for administration on his estate and that administration will be vested in the clerk of the superior court, or some other fit and proper person, after the publication of this citation unless valid objection is made thereto.

W. L. CALHOUN, Ordinary.

292 nov6-law3m

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—ORDINARY'S office, January 7, 1882.—Notice is hereby given to all concerned that information has been filed in this office that James Holley, late of said county, departed this life intestate, and no person has applied for administration on his estate and that administration will be vested in the clerk of the superior court, or some other fit and proper person, after the publication of this citation unless valid objection is made thereto.

W. L. CALHOUN, Ordinary.

292 nov6-law3m

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—ORDINARY'S office, January 7, 1882.—Notice is hereby given to all concerned that information has been filed in this office that James Holley, late of said county, departed this life intestate, and no person has applied for administration on his estate and that administration will be vested in the clerk of the superior court, or some other fit and proper person, after the publication of this citation unless valid objection is made thereto.

W. L. CALHOUN, Ordinary.

292 nov6-law3m

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—ORDINARY'S office, January 7, 1882.—Notice is hereby given to all concerned that information has been filed in this office that James Holley, late of said county, departed this life intestate, and no person has applied for administration on his estate and that administration will be vested in the clerk of the superior court, or some other fit and proper person, after the publication of this citation unless valid objection is made thereto.

W. L. CALHOUN, Ordinary.

292 nov6-law3m

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.—ORDINARY'S office, January 7, 1882.—Notice is hereby given to all concerned that information has been filed in this office that James Holley, late of said county, departed this life intestate, and no person has applied for administration on his estate and that administration will be vested in the clerk of the superior court, or some other fit and proper person, after the publication of this citation unless valid objection is made thereto.

W. L. CALHOUN, Ordinary.

"A BONANZA FOR ALL."

JOHN RYAN

SHOE DEPARTMENT.

Will make things livey this week in his

Immense stock, grand assortment of the well-known makes and marvelously low prices. See the following and gather therefrom that great information desired by all, namely,

WHERE TO BUY THE BEST & CHEAPEST GOODS

800 pairs Men's Kip Boots from $2 upwards. 500 pairs Men's French Kip Boots at $3, worth $5. Men's best French Calf N. O. box and plain toe Boots only $3.50, worth $6. Men's hand-sewed Congress at $4.75, worth $7. Men's French Calf Congress Button or Buckle, all styles, at $3.50, worth $5. 1,200 pairs of Men's Shoes, different styles on Bargain Counter, at $1.25. 600 pairs Men's Shoes, Congress and Buckle at $1.50.

700 pairs Men's fine Shoes, Congress, Button and Bals., at $2, Bargain Counter. 2,610 pairs Ladies fine Kid and Goat Button Shoes at $2, worth $3. 1,270 Ladies extra fine Kid Button Shoes at $3, worth $5. 765 Ladies Goat Button Shoes reduced to $1.25. 642 pairs Misses Goat front lace Shoes reduced to $1—EVERY PAIR WARRANTED. 1,350 pairs Misses Kid Button Shoes at $1.25, worth $2. 2,341 Child's Goat and Kid Button Shoes at $1, worth $1.50. Men's Slippers reduced to nearly

BARGAIN COUNTER!

Never since Atlanta has been a city has such remarkable bargains in the Shoe line been offered. Don't think of buying a single pair of until you examine this stock. The stock of Shoes is by far the largest and best assorted in the south, contains nearly all the celebrated makes at prices that would seem ridiculously low in the eyes of any shoe dealer.

HALF PRICE

BOOTS, SHOES OR RUBBERS

Bear in mind that Shoes kept in this store are not such as are usually sold in Dry Goods stores. No shoddy or imperfect Shoes kept—nothing but first-class, good reliable goods at

JOHN RYAN'S,
61 WHITEHALL, AND 66, 68 AND 70 BROAD STREETS.

MILLS, STEAM ENGINES, ETC.

E. VAN WINKLE & CO.

FOR SALE.—LEVER HEAD BLOCK MILLS, Simple, Accurate and Strong. For Prices and Terms address

E. VAN WINKLE & CO.,
Manufacturers, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

Also, 8, 10, 12 and 15-Horse Power Engines, Mounted and Stationary.

THE OLDEST AND BEST IN AMERICA.

CORTICELLI SPOOL SILK

for hand or machine use. Ask for it and see that you get it.

FLORENCE ETCHING SILK

FOR ART DESIGNS IN OUTLINE.

FLORENCE KNITTING SILK

FOR GLOVES, STOCKINGS, WRISTERS AND EDGINGS.

AN ILLUSTRATED 32 PAGE PAMPHLET, "HOW TO USE FLORENCE KNITTING SILK," SENT ON ANY ADDRESS ON RECEIPT OF A 3 CENT STAMP.

FOR SALE BY ALL LEADING DEALERS.

NONOTUCK SILK COMPANY

SOLE MANUFACTURERS.

SALESROOMS, 88 WEST THIRD STREET, CINCINNATI.

EDISTO PHOSPHATE CO.,

CHARLESTON, S. C.

J. E. B. SLOAN, GENERAL AGENT.

MANUFACTURERS OF FERTILIZERS, HAVE on hand a large lot of high grade Acid Phosphate, which they will sell cheap for prompt shipment. Importers of German Kainit. and 12m—10m thurs sat

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

RESIDENCES IN ATLANTA, ANY SIZE AND LOCATION, FARMS NEAR ATLANTA AND IN THE PORTION OF GEORGIA. MILLS NEAR ATLANTA. VACANT LAND IN AND NEAR ATLANTA.

FRIERSON & LEAK,

REAL ESTATE AGENTS, 33 MARIETTA STREET

CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

Does the water in your town or city need filtering? If so, go at once to McBride & Co's and secure right to manufacture the "Gate City Stone Water Filter." Without a doubt it is the best Filter in the world. Every Druggist and Liquor Dealer must have one.

(See below for more on this)

COTTON AND WEATHER.

Cotton, middling uplands closed in Liverpool yesterday, at 10 1/2; in New York, at 12; in Atlanta at 11 1/2.

The Signal Service Bureau report indicates for Georgia to-day, light rain and partly cloudy weather; wind mostly from east to south, with falling barometer.

Daily Weather Report.
OBSERVER'S OFFICE, Signal Corps, U. S. A.
KIMBALL HOUSE, JANUARY 18, 10:31, P. M.
[All observations taken at the same moment of actual time.]

NAME OF STATION.	Barometer.	Thermometer.	Wind.	Direction.	Force.	Rainfall.	Weather.
Atlanta	30.09	49	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Light rain.
Augusta	30.10	48	E.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Chickasaw	30.10	48	N. W.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Galveston	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Indianapolis	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Key West	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Mobile	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Montgomery	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Port Jervis	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
Pensacola	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.
St. Louis	30.10	48	N.	Light	0.00	0.00	Cloudy.

NOTE.—Force of Wind: Light, 1 to 2 miles per hour; Moderate, 3 to 5; Fresh, 6 to 10; Gale, 11 to 15; Storm, 16 to 25; Hurricane, 26 to 35.

Local Weather Report.
ATLANTA, GA., January 18, 1882.

TIME.	Barometer.	Thermometer. Dew Point.	Direction.	Force.	Rainfall.	Weather.
6:31 a. m.....	30.21	44	E.	Fresh	.40	Cloudy.
7:31 ".....	30.21	44	E.	Brisk	..00	Lt. rain.
8:30 p. m.....	30.21	44	E.	Fresh	..00	Cloudy.
9:31 ".....	30.15	43	N E	E	.12	Lt. rain.
6:31 ".....	30.09	47	E.	Fresh	..00	Cloudy.
10:31 ".....	30.09	47	N.	Good	.43	Lt. rain.
* Not enough to measure.
Mean daily bar.....	30.157	Maximum ther.....	50.5
Mean daily ther.....	46.5	Minimum ther.....	41.5
Mean daily humid.....	96.0	Total rainfall.....	.57
Serceno Signal Corps S. A. HALL.						